Re: AT&T Service, Inc., et al. v. Robert J. Bugielski, et al.
Case No. 23-1094

Dear Mr. Harris:

The petition for writ of certiorari in this matter was filed on April 5, 2024. Respondents' response in opposition was originally due On May 9. On May 2, this Court granted a thirty-day extension of time to file our brief in response. On June 5, pursuant to Respondents' second request for an extension, this Court granted a thirty-day extension of time to file our brief in response. Respondent's brief in opposition is currently due July 10, 2024. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Respondents respectfully request another 30-day extension to file their response, up to and including August 9, 2024. The undersigned counsel requires additional time due to counsels' workload, pressing court deadlines in other matters, and scheduled and unscheduled absences from the office of certain team members. Respondents will not seek any further extension. Respondents have asked opposing counsel if we can represent that Petitioner does not object to the additional extension, as they have previously, but have not received a response as of filing. We will update should we receive a response.

Thank you very much for your time and assistance in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

SCHNEIDER WALLACE
