UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

JAMES EDWARD YOUNG,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 5:22-CR-29-1

Before JOLLY, ENGELHARDT, and DOUGLAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

James Edward Young appeals his guilty plea conviction and the 120-month sentence imposed for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He asks this court to remand the case for correction of clerical errors in the statement of reasons to reflect that: (1) the revised guidelines range was 70 to 87 months; and (2) the 120-month sentence was above the guidelines range.

* This opinion is not designated for publication. See 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.

Because the statement of reasons serves only a “record-keeping function” and does not provide any “procedural safeguard[s]” to a defendant and because the transcript reflects the correct guidelines range and that the sentence was above the guidelines range, the error is harmless. United States v. Shakhbazyan, 841 F.3d 286, 292 (5th Cir. 2016); see United States v. Maturin, 887 F.3d 716, 725 n.44 (5th Cir. 2018).

In addition, Young asserts that his sentence is substantively unreasonable because the district court did not account for his acceptance of responsibility, which should have received significant weight. He preserved this issue by requesting a within-guidelines sentence and objecting to the sentence as substantively unreasonable. See Holguin-Hernandez v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 762, 764-67 (2020). The district court correctly calculated the advisory guidelines range, evaluated the information in the presentence report, and considered the parties’ arguments, Young’s allocution, and the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) factors. He has not shown that the district court did not account for an important factor, gave significant weight to an improper factor, or made a clear error of judgment in balancing the sentencing factors. See United States v. Hudgens, 4 F.4th 352, 358 (5th Cir. 2021). He is essentially asking us to reweigh the § 3553(a) factors and substitute our judgment on appeal, which we will not do. See United States v. Hernandez, 876 F.3d 161, 167 (5th Cir. 2017).

Young also contends 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) is unconstitutional because it exceeds Congress’s enumerated powers under the Commerce Clause. His argument is foreclosed by precedent, as we have “consistently upheld the constitutionality of § 922(g)(1)” as a valid exercise of Congress’s authority under the Commerce Clause. United States v. Alcantar, 733 F.3d 143, 145 (5th Cir. 2013).

No. 22-11098

Finally, Young contends § 922(g)(1) violates his rights under the Second Amendment in view of New York State Rifle & Pistol Ass’n, Inc. v. Bruen, 597 U.S. 1, 17-18 (2022). Because he did not raise this issue in the district court, our review is limited to plain error. See Puckett v. United States, 556 U.S. 129, 135 (2009). To show plain error, he must show a forfeited error that was clear or obvious error and that affected his substantial rights. Id. If he makes such a showing, we have discretion to correct the error but will do so only if it “seriously affects the fairness, integrity or public reputation of judicial proceedings.” Id. (internal quotation marks, citation, and brackets omitted). We recently rejected an unpreserved Bruen-based challenge to the constitutionality of § 922(g)(1) under the Second Amendment. See United States v. Jones, 88 F.4th 571, 573-74 (5th Cir. 2023), cert. denied, 2024 WL 1143799 (U.S. March 18, 2024) (No. 23-6769). Accordingly, Young has not demonstrated reversible plain error. See id.; see also Puckett, 556 U.S. at 135.

AFFIRMED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD YOUNG
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-CR-00029-H-BQ(1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at www.txnp.uscourts.gov.
