

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

LARRY R. STEELE, movant

v.
 United States Postal Service; State of Texas; United States of America; Brian Collier, Executive Director, Texas Department of Criminal Justice; Bobby Lumpkin, Director, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Correctional Institution Division, Defendants

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE
EXTENSION OF TIME

Comes now, Larry R. Steele, movant, and asks this Honorable Court for leave to file an Extension of Time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari and as such STEELE shows:

I

A decision that was made from the United States Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit (5th Cir.), which was filed as SUMMARY CALENDAR, that was filed January 19, 2024 with DENIED STEELE for leave to file to Proceed Intermittent Appeals because the 5th Cir. believes, "STEELE has not established that he will present a nonfrivolous issue on appeal." See Attached ORDER, esp. last paragraph on Page 3

Winn, on March 26, 2024 the 5th Cir. Denied
STEELE's Petition for Rehearing, see "Appendix A"

II

STEELE is a prisoner with many different Hardships and at the very start of STEELE's Prisoner's Civil Rights Complaint, USC 42819B3, STEELE has complained of some of the Defendants limiting writing supplies, times to work on legal work, and even complaints of the delivery to and from the courts

III

STEELE is still in the research part of his petition for a writ of Certiorari and will most likely have several questions that your Honorable Court will have to settle. As it is now, the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) may very well violate the United States Constitution article VI (1787-92) (see art. VI) by lawmakers, both state and federal, violating articles 2 and 6 of The Declaration of Human Rights (1948). And as such, these lawmakers have efficiently and effectively violated my United States Constitution, Constitutional Amendment I (USA and amend I) of the freedom of speech, which efficiently and effectively denied me Due Process, right to be "HEARD", USA Const. amend. ~~XIV~~ and this happened in the United States, and if they be true, than the 11th amendment Clause (which amendment II) may not protect these Defendants from suit or even prosecution. And STEELE may very well have even more questions than these.

PRAYER

STEELE prays that you, Honorable Justice Samuel A. Alito, GRANT this "Motion for Leave to File Extension of Time" because of STEELE's inexperience in matters of the law and the hardships that the defendants, all of them, have placed on STEELE to prevent him from relief in civil and even criminal matters. Please extend the time to file a petition for a writ of Certiorari till and including August 29, 2024. Thank you most kind Sir.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE
