*On Application for an Extension of Time to

Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit*

COVER SHEET

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI FROM THE
PURSUANT TO RULE 13.5

To the Honorable (Justice) of the (United States Supreme Court).

¶Petitioner Rona Johnson Adeoye, requested an extension of time of 60 days, to file Petition for Writ of Certiorari. See Supreme Court Rule 13.5 (“[A] Justice may extend the time to file a petition for Writ of Certiorari for a period not exceeding 60 days”). The final judgment, or the denial petition for hearing in the appropriate court was entered and decided on April 2, 2024, A Judgment notice presumed on May 1, 2024 which states that it is not a copy of the court’s decision., via attached MDT-1 Letter Issuing Mandate. Application, copies of lower court opinions, including any order denying rehearing or judgment if time is different from the opinion. The date Petition for Writ of Certiorari will expire on July 1, 2024. The application is being filed 10 days prior to that due date.

Petitioner also is attaching relevant copies of majority and dissenting opinions. Thusfore, The United States Supreme Court is the highest court in the federal judiciary of the United States. It has ultimate appellate jurisdiction over all U.S. federal court cases, and over state court cases that turn on questions of U.S. constitutional or federal law. The basic statute effective at this time in conferring and controlling jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court may be found in 28 U.S.C. §1251 et seq., and various special statutes.

The reason for the extension is that Petitioner was given short notice from The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals on June 18, 2024 via telephone. The actual notice was published on casetext online pacer for failure to extend or reopen the case for more than 180 days. ¶Petitioner received a notice of judgment in the mail from The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals that on May 1, 2024 stating quote: A copy of this letter, and judgment from if noted above, but not a copy of the court’s decision. Referencing to the online casetext states quote: The appeal is dismissed, sua sponte for the lack of jurisdiction and appellant did not move to extend or reopen the appeals period for more than 180 days. The online casetext publication was different from what was sent via mail to the petitioner.

¶The petitioner states that she would have not known if the appellant did not do a case search for the above case No. 24-10437 as the petitioner does not have an active account with Pacer. Thusfore, the petitioner has notified The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals that all filings, motions, pleadings, are generated via mail that there shall not be any reason for lacking the differentiate subtitle and wording from what the appellant actually received via mail versus from what was published online casetext pacer.

Respectfully submitted,

Rona Johnson Adeoye

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia
D.C. Docket Nos. 1:22-cv-02840-VMC,
1:22-cv-02838-VMC

Before ROSENBAUM, LUCK, and LAGOA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

This appeal is DISMISSED, sua sponte, for lack of jurisdiction. The 30-day statutory time limit required Rona Adeoye to file a notice of appeal from the district court's September 9, 2022 final judgment on or before October 11, 2022. See 28 U.S.C. § 2107(a); Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(1)(A). However, Adeoye did not file a notice of appeal until February 7, 2024.

Further, the record contains no basis for relief under Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure 4(a)(5) or 4(a)(6) because Adeoye did not move to extend or reopen the appeal period and more than 180 days have passed since the judgment was entered. See Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(5) (providing that a party may move to extend the time for filing a notice of appeal within 30 days of entry of final judgment); id. R. 4(a)(6)(A) (providing that a party may move to reopen the appeal period not later than 180 days after the order or judgment is entered). Accordingly, the notice of appeal is untimely and cannot invoke our appellate jurisdiction. See Green v. Drug Enf't Admin., 606 F.3d 1296, 1300 (11th Cir. 2010).

No petition for rehearing may be filed unless it complies with the timing and other requirements of 11th Cir. R. 40-3 and all other applicable rules.
