Re: Motion to Extend Deadline to file Certiorari
In re Alicia Marie Richards 8:21-bk-10635-SC
Bankruptcy Appellate Panel Case No 23-1044
Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals 23-3656

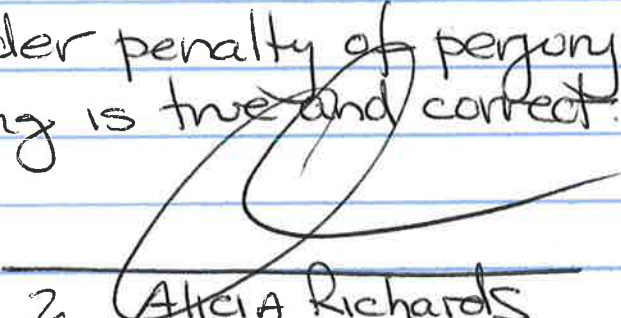

Dear Clerk:

I am requesting pursuant to Rule 30 that the time to file my petition for certiorari be extended from June 24, 2024, by 60 days to and including August 23, 2024. No prior extensions have been granted or denied. I wrote opposing parties to see if they would oppose this extension request but have not received a response. I require additional time to put my brief together. I was incarcerated by the bankruptcy court for alleged civil contempt that is in dispute but it has caused me difficulties because of being denied access to the law library to draft and research to prepare my brief. In fact, had it not been for the incarceration and the constantly changing rules implemented by the jail, my brief would have been timely filed. This Petition deals with issues of law regarding Section 1915 and 9th Circuit Bankruptcy Procedure 8018. I have diligently been trying to draft my brief in light of the difficulties but require an additional 60 days. Opposing parties will not be prejudiced by this extension request. This request is made in good faith and not to delay resolution of this matter which issues are important and should not evade review.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated 6/6/24

2  Alecia Richards

Note: The Bankruptcy Court's Order dated 2/7/23; The Bankruptcy Panel's Order of Dismissal dated November, 2023; the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals' dismissal dated April 19, 2024. I was denied access to make copies of the orders by the court and jail but included the case numbers.
