Defendant—Appellant.

Before Higginbotham, Elrod, and Southwick, Circuit Judges.

Opinion

Per Curiam: *

*1 Adam Sanchez appeals his conviction and above-Guidelines sentence for possessing a firearm after a felony conviction in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922\(g\)\(1\).

As he properly concedes, our precedent forecloses his argument that Section 922\(g\)\(1\) violates the Commerce Clause. See United States v. Perryman, 965 F.3d 424, 426 (5th Cir. 2020). Likewise, Fifth Circuit precedent also forecloses his unpreserved argument that Section 922\(g\)\(1\) violates the Second Amendment. See United States v. Jones, 88 F.4th 571, 573–74 (5th Cir. 2023), cert. denied, 144 S. Ct. 1081 (2024).

We review his preserved challenge to the substantive reasonableness of his sentence for an abuse of discretion. See Gall v. United States, 552 U.S. 38, 51 (2007). Here, the district court considered Sanchez's arguments regarding mitigating factors. It determined an upward variance was nonetheless justified based on the seriousness of the offense, his risk of recidivism, and his history of domestic violence. The extent of the variance is also well within the range of other upward variances this court has affirmed. *See, e.g., United States v.
Key*, 599 F.3d 469, 475–76 (5th Cir. 2010). Moreover, the cases Sanchez cites in support of his challenge to the extent of the variance are distinguishable, as those cases concerned unusual circumstances not present here. The district court did not abuse its discretion in imposing Sanchez's sentence, as it reasonably reflected the 18 U.S.C. § 3553\(a\) factors and did not represent a clear error of judgment in balancing the factors. See Gall, 552 U.S. at 51; United States v. Diehl, 775
F.3d 714, 724 (5th Cir. 2015).

Finally, we decline Sanchez's request to remand for correction of a clerical error in the Statement of Reasons. The district court's judgment is AFFIRMED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ADAM SANCHEZ
CASE NUMBER: 5:23-CR-00030-H-BQ(1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
