UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

RECARDO CARTRELL PIERCE,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana
USDC No. 5:22-CR-180-1

Before SOUTHWICK, GRAVES, and ENGELHARDT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Recardo Cartrell Pierce appeals his conviction for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1) and his sentence of 93 months of imprisonment. He argues that the evidence at trial was insufficient to support his conviction. Because Pierce preserved this issue for appeal, our review is de novo, “with substantial deference to the jury verdict.” See United States v. Suarez, 879 F.3d 626, 630 (5th Cir. 2018) (citation omitted). In other words, we review “the evidence in the light most favorable to the verdict to determine whether a rational trier of fact could have found that the evidence established the essential elements of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt.” United States v. Brannan, 98 F.4th 636, 638 (5th Cir. 2024) (quotation marks and citation omitted).

Pierce challenges the sufficiency of the evidence only as to the element of knowing possession of the firearm. Such possession may be constructive, as reflected by dominion or control over the firearm. United States v. Fields, 977 F.3d 358, 365–66 (5th Cir. 2020). We conclude that, when viewed in the light most favorable to the verdict, the trial evidence was sufficient to permit a rational jury to find beyond a reasonable doubt that Pierce constructively possessed the firearm and that he did so knowingly. See Robinson, 87 F.4th at 669; Fields, 977 F.3d at 365–66.

Pierce also argues the district court erred when it enhanced his sentence under U.S.S.G. § 3C1.1 for obstruction of justice. Because Pierce preserved his challenge to the enhancement, we review the district court’s finding on this issue for clear error. United States v. Zamora-Salazar, 860 F.3d 826, 836 (5th Cir. 2017). Here, the district court found that Pierce attempted to entice a witness to sign a false affidavit claiming that the firearm was hers. This finding was plausible in light of the record as a whole, including the jail phone calls and the jury’s verdict. See id.

Finally, Pierce argues for the first time on appeal that Section 922(g)(1) violates the Second Amendment based on the test set forth in New York State Rifle & Pistol Ass’n v. Bruen, 597 U.S. 1 (2022). However, his unpreserved Bruen challenge is foreclosed. United States v. Jones, 88 F.4th 571, 573–74 (5th Cir. 2023), cert. denied, 144 S. Ct. 1081 (2024).

AFFIRMED.

CASE NUMBER: 5:22-CR-00180-1

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 93 months as to count 1. The sentence of 93 months takes into account the 3 months the Defendant spent in state custody on these charges; otherwise, the Court would have sentenced the Defendant to 96 months. On May 21, 2022, the Defendant was arrested by the Bossier Parish Sheriff's Office on charges related to the instant offense. On August 10, 2022, a federal arrest warrant was issued. On August 29, 2022, the federal arrest warrant was executed, and the Defendant has been incarcerated continuously since that time. The instant offense was committed while the Defendant was serving a sentence in Docket No. 5:18CR00322-01. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. §5G1.3(a), it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run consecutively to the undischarged term of imprisonment in Docket Number 5:18CR00322-01 from the Western District of Louisiana. The Court notes the potential of "anticipated state sentences" in Docket Number C-244423 that does not represent relevant conduct. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. §5G1.3(c), it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed in Docket Number C-244423 from the Twenty-Sixth Judicial Court in Bossier Parish, Louisiana. The Court notes the potential of "anticipated state sentences" under the alias of Ricardo Catrell Pierce, in Docket Number C-243262 that represents relevant conduct. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. §5G1.3(c), it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run concurrent to any sentence imposed in Docket Number C-243262 from the Twenty-Sixth Judicial Court in Bossier Parish, Louisiana. Should the Defendant be entitled to credit for any of the time the Defendant has already spent in federal custody, the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make that determination.

- The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The Court recommends that the Defendant be evaluated for inclusion in the Residential Drug Abuse Program.
- The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
  - at _____  a.m.  p.m. on _____.
  - as notified by the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
  - before 2 p.m. on _____
  - as notified by the United States Marshal.
  - as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

DEFENDANT: RECARDO CARTRELL PIERCE
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-CR-00180-1

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: three (3) years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS (MC)

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
4.  The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court’s determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
6.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
7.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
8.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
9.  The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is hereby suspended, and defendant’s passport is ordered released to defendant’s attorney. (check if applicable)
10.  The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is continued, and defendant’s passport is ordered transferred to the U. S. Department of State. (check if applicable)
11. You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION (SC)

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U. S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.
