Re: Carlanda D. Meadors, et al. v. Erie County Board of Elections, et al.,
No. 24-684

Dear Mr. Harris:

My law firm represents respondents in this proceeding. I write to request an extension of time to oppose the petition for a writ of certiorari in this matter.

The current deadline is February 18, 2025, and respondents respectfully seek an extension of thirty days. The new deadline to file a brief in opposition to the petition would be Thursday, March 20, 2025. The reason for the extension is to have sufficient time to communicate with our clients and research and prepare a brief that will be helpful to this Court. Doing so would be difficult with the current deadline given the nature of this case, which involves government entities and individuals as respondents. I also have several other deadlines in other matters to attend to in the coming weeks.

My office has communicated with counsel for the petitioners, and they consent to the requested extension.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jason Harrow
