Re: Sprout Foods, Inc., v. Gillian Davidson & Samuel Davidson, No. 24-737

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am a partner at Gutride Safier LLP, counsel for respondents in the above-referenced case. On January 13, 2025, this Court docketed petitioner's certiorari petition. Unless extended by the Court, respondents' response to the petition would be due on February 12, 2025. For the reasons that follow, and pursuant to Rule 30.4, respondents respectfully request an extension of 30 days, to and including, March 14, 2025, in which to file their response.

This is respondents' first request for an extension of time to file a response. Respondents seek this extension because of several pressing obligations in other cases and because one entity has already indicated its intent to file an amicus brief in support of the petition for certiorari. The requested extension will enable respondents to respond to that amicus brief, as well as to the petition itself, in their brief in opposition.

For these reasons, I ask that a 30-day extension be granted. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Adam Gutride
